

COLE'S CLASSIC

The Cole's Classic Golf Outing brought more than 100 golfers and local golf professionals to the Audubon County Club in October to support Kosair Kids. The event, sponsored by Kindred Healthcare, honored Kosair Kid Cole Herrick.

JUST FORE KIDS GOLF CLASSIC

For the 12th year, the Kosair Charities/Ronald McDonald Charities Just Fore Kids Golf Classic raised money to support Kosair Kids and families that call the Ronald McDonald House a temporary home. More than 30 teams participated in the event at the Hurstbourne Country Club in August.

PEPPERMINT LOUNGE

The Peppermint in the Iroquois Manor Shopping Center in Louisville, Kentucky raised funds for Kosair Kids in memory of Debbie Pryor in September. More than 150 people attended the first-time event that raised $5,000. John O'Malley and Lary Pryor (left to right) presented the event proceeds to Eric Churchill of Kosair Charities.

JEFFERSON COUNTY DRUG COURT RECOVERY WALK

The Jefferson County Drug Court's first Recovery Walk was held in August. Hundreds of walkers participated in the event to bring awareness to the services available through the county's drug court programs. Proceeds from the walk were donated to Kosair Charities.

UPS/KOSAIR CHARITIES GOLF SCRAMBLE

More than 200 UPS employees, retirees, friends, families and vendors gathered in September at Quail Chase Golf Course for the 14th annual UPS / Kosair Charities Golf Scramble which raised $60,000. Since the scramble in 1995, more than $436,000 has been generated for Kosair Charities.

A COMFORT TO CHILDREN DURING THE TOUGHEST TIMES

Bears on Patrol is a Kosair Charities program that supplies local law enforcement, emergency medical and vehicle enforcement agencies with teddy bears and other stuffed animals to be used in comforting young children exposed to traumatic situations.

Bears on Patrol has received donations from the following:

Sue Black, Phyllis Clark, Doug Grant and his Bible school class, Leslie Johnson, Jefferson County PVA Tony Lindauer, PNC Bank, Linn Station Road, Sages Seniors at Church of the Epiphany

To contribute to Bears on Patrol, contact Karen Ernspeker at (502) 637-7696, (888) 454-3752 or visit www.kosair.org.

